

CURRICULUM VITAE

ROBERT E. SHERIDAN

Born-October 11, 1940

BA-Geology-Rutgers University-1962

MA-Marine Geophysics-Columbia University-1965

PhD-Marine Geophysics-Columbia University-1968

Research Scientist-Lamont Doherty Geological Observatory-1968

Instructor-Columbia University-1968

Assistant Professor-University of Delaware-1968

Associate Professor-University of Delaware-1973

Full Professor-University of Delaware-1981

Full Professor-Rutgers University-1986

Professor Emeritus-Rutgers University-2003

Phi Beta Kappa-1962

Antarctica Service Medal from the US Navy-1968

Co-Discoverer- USS Monitor wreck-1973

WAE-Geophysicist-USGS Marine Geology- Woods Hole-1975

Co-Chief Scientist-Glomar Challenger-Leg 44-1975

Chair-JOIDES Passive Margin Panel-1977-80

Co-Chief Scientist-Glomar Challenger-Leg 76-1980

Atlantic Margin Chair-Ocean Margin Drilling Program-1980-83

Co-Editor-GSA DNAG-US Atlantic Margin Volume-1981-88

Co-Chief Scientist-NSF EDGE Project-1990-93

Author-“Iron from the Deep: The Discovery and Recovery of the USS Monitor”-2004

Author-”The Union Attack on Drewry’s Bluff.: An Opportunity Lost”-2010